Proceedings of Annual Alumni Meet 2017

(17.12.2017)

The Old Students meet was organized in Khalsa College of Education, Muktsar by Alumni Association on December 17, 2017. First of all, Mrs. Ritika Grover, Incharge, Alumni Association welcomed the old students of the college. The convener of the meeting was Dr. Tarlok Bandhu, Principal of the College. He focused on main agenda of the meeting which is to build strong relationship between college and alumni. Suggestions were demanded for type of activities alumni wish to conduct in college. Selection of President, Secretary and Media Relation officer was discussed. Alumni suggested to use this association as a serious platform to discuss perspectives of education. Forty nine alumni attended the meet (List attached).

A new initiative was taken by the alumni association which is to link alumni association with placement cell of the college. Resumes were demanded from all the alumni so that best placements can be offered to the alumni.

Sarabjeet Singh shared his efforts for upliftment of society. He took the initiative for education. He along with his friends provide free education to street children. They do this by selling Waste material (raadi). They also run facebook page Raadi to Education. His inspiration was some of the books and novels he read. They also run an institute in muktsar. He also motivated other alumni to join hands with them. Dr. Tarlok Bandhu appreciated their efforts. They offered all raadi from college for their work. He also offered a room in the college for doing activities for those street children or for conducting classes for them. He also suggested some projects for them. He suggested to make college one of the centres in muktsar to educate street children.

Birbal Singh appreciated the effort of college of linking placement cell with alumni association. He suggested to organize a fresher course about how to give interview.

An alumnus discussed the issue regarding unavailability of books in Muktsar. Dr. Tarlok bandhu offered the alumni college library facilities and also they can recommend the books they need.

Alumni wrote their suggestions on suggestion register for betterment of college and society. Alumni had a volley ball match to cherish their memories. At last, Dr. Tarlok Bandhu thanked the alumni members for sparing their valuable time for college.
